Ken McCulloch named Scottish Hotelier of the Year

(26 February 2008 17:15)

Malmaison and Dakota founder Ken McCulloch has been named as Scottish Hotelier of the Year at the fifth Scottish Hotels of the Year awards.

Amongst the winners were Apex Hotels, who won the Scottish Hotel Group of the Year, and Inverlochy Castle at Fort William, which was named Scottish National Hotel of the Year.

Gleneagles in Perthshire was named International Resort of the Year.

The ceremony was held at Edinburgh's Prestonfield House Hotel and sponsored by online booking agent Hotel Review Scotland.

Nominations were made by consumers, members of the industry and reviewers with the final winners selected by a combination of online votes and the views of a judging panel of industry experts.
